Morning Star

Men's Group

The Saturday morning Men's Group call themselves the knights. Knights grew out of a dark age, a time when there were few noble men. The knights were called to stand above the age, to stand for something, and to serve their king.

We look at ourselves as modern day knights living in a confused society. We, as men of God, are also called to raise the standard, to stand for something, to love our wife, to be a Godly example to our children, and to influence the world for Jesus Christ—the King that we serve.

We gather every Saturday to encourage one another, give support and pray for each other. We discuss the battles we face and experience. We make plans for future battles and how to gain victory over them.

When we meet Saturday

- 7:30 a.m.—9:00 a.m.
- Morning Star Friends Church
- Contact person: Dale Leonard (440) 796-4396

Why we gather: We believe it is very important that men have other men in their lives to encourage one another.

God never intended us to walk the Christian life alone.

Motto:

No Man Left Behind

How wonderful and pleasant it is when brothers live together in harmony. (Psalm 133:1)

As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another.
—Proverbs 27:17

A man of many companions may come to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.
—Proverbs 18:24

There was a man all alone;
he had neither son nor brother.
There was no end to his toil,
yet his eyes were not content with his wealth.
“For whom am I toiling,” he asked,
“and why am I depriving myself of enjoyment?”
This too is meaningless—
a miserable business!

Two are better than one,
because they have a good return for their work:
If one falls down,
his friend can help him up.
But pity the man who falls
and has no one to help him up ...
...Though one may be overpowered,
two can defend themselves.
A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

—Ecclesiastes 4:8-12
